DEDICATION

TO

Dr. Stephen J. Lewis

Outstanding dental practitioner and national leader, lecturer, author and dental organizer and consultant, among his many contributions in the literary field is the life story of the Founder as graphically and dramatically told by him in his book, "Undaunted Faith".

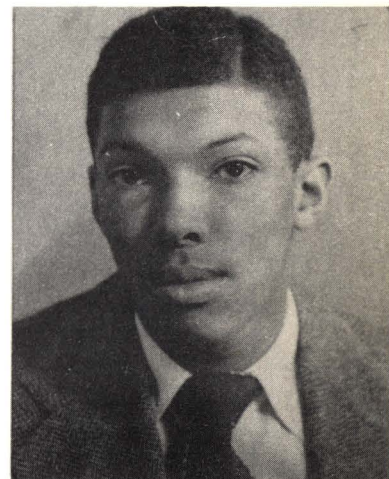

Honored by many literary and scientific societies, recently elected a member of the American Association of Dental Editors, our honoree is founder and editor of the Bulletin of the National Dental Association.

The Class of 1950 salutes with pride this outstanding member of the Class of 1900.

CLASS SONG

(Tune: Auld Lang Syne)

Could old Manassas be forgot and never brought to mind?
Could old Manassas be forgot in the moving years of time?

In dear old Manassas, we've strived for four long years,
To reach this goal of grand success, although were blind with tears.

Tears of both joy and grief, to say this parting phrase,
We'll always love Manassas for the rest of our days.

We wish to show our gratitude for all that has been done,
To help us fight this battle that we have finally won.

Manassas, we'll think of thee, we'll sing thee songs of praise,
We'll keep a vivid memory of all our high school days.

CLASS POEM

In a small town called Manassas stands a school
we love so well. A little world within itself,
Where boys and girls may swell, for four long years they swell within this little world of knowledge, to prepare themselves for the outer world or for some well known college.

The Class of 1950 leaves, this little world to see. What good or bad may come to them, or just what life would be. Without this little school of ours, that is so good and find.
To set our feet in the right direction on the moving sand of time.

CLASS HISTORY

In The Year Of Our Lord 1950

Individuals and groups are always entering upon some phase of the dramatic cycle of time at some specific place to perform some definite Act and then move on to another. Ours was a group gathered from many communities; the place was the Manassas Regional High School; and those who subdued the shifting scenes of the dramatic stage of ever increasing events were destined to play the roles that would produce the Class of 1950. Thus the records of the Class of 1950 began--no different from those of any other class--but because of their special interest and significance to us, we record them as our Class History.

It was a blamy day in September, 1946 that the curtain rose upon the stage. One hundred and sixteen actors and actresses appeared--40 boys and 76 girls--portraying the roles of Freshmen.

"Stage-fright", harasses by upper-classmen, adjustments to teachers and increased subject-matter were only a few of the situations that had to be overcome. But after a few weeks of making adjustments, the group finally assumed its role as dignified Freshmen.

The Class was organized with Henry Dyer, as president; Catherine Harris, Secretary; and Doris Jean Denney, Treasure; Mrs. Dorothy H. Hall, Mrs. Ruby S. Short, and Miss Clara O. Edmonds were our sponsors.

We gave a dance called the "kiddies' Ball" and were thrilled with it's success. We were also very proud to contribute to the Student Cooperative Association the sum of twenty dollars and participated in supporting the first yearbook of this school.

September, 1947 rolled around and there were only 92 of us enrolled this year. Some had changed schools, while others had gone to work. We organized this time with Floyd Hunter, as our President; Secretary, Eva Mae Colvin and Treasurer, Doris Jean Denney. Our sponsors were Mrs. Roberta Barnes, Mrs. Mary Fields, and Mr. William Short. We gave with much success "The Cotton Ball" dance, which we will always remember.

We were over-joyed, when a member of our class, Avon Jeanette Lee, was crowned as "Miss M.R.H." We also presented a sum of money to the year book staff.

In our third year, we organized with Lucille L. Lewis as President; Cora Harris as Secretary and Doris Jean Denney as Treasurer. Our sponsors were Mrs. Roberta Barnes, Mrs. Katie Smith, and Mr. William Short.

We will always remember the "Pre-Halloween Dance" and in the spring we had a "Barn Dance" which were both a success. At the end of the year we sponsored the "Junior-Senior Prom" and it went over splendidly. The entire Junior Class made history as they "swang and swayed" to the music of the "Courtney Brooks Orchestra" at the Junior-Senior Prom: the greatest of its kind in the history of the Regional High School.

At our "Annual Homecoming" Miss Catherine Harris, of our class was elected "Miss Homecoming". Her float led the parade from the campus down to and through the streets of Manassas.

We have also shared in out-of-class activities. The football and basketball teams will miss James Foster, Sidney Cannon, Henry Bailey, Eugene Skinner, and Floyd Hunter. We were proud of our basket-ball team when it went to Richmond to the 1950 Virginia Interscholastic Athletic League Basket-ball Tournament and won the Consolation Trophy.

We know the melodious voices of Doris Denney, Helen Ford, Eva Mae Colvin, Loretta Goins, Earline Pumphrey, Eugene Skinner, Ann Turner, Ernest Coles, James Foster, Roosevelt Foster, Henry Bailey, Catherine Harris, Sidney Cannon, and Floyd Hunter will be missed from the Choral Club.

We often think of our fellow classmates who started out with us, but dropped out along the way for one reason or another. We express sincere wishes to them for their success and happiness in whatever duties they are pursuing.

And now the cycle is completed, finishing the History of the Class of 1950. The curtain comes down to indicate the end of the fourth and final Act. There will be no encore, but what we have done and shared here will always be remembered and cherished by us. We have worked, studied, played, and even spent moments of sadness together. We have grown physically, intellectually and morally; we are grateful for our accomplishments and look forward to the future with confidence, courage, and enthusiasm.

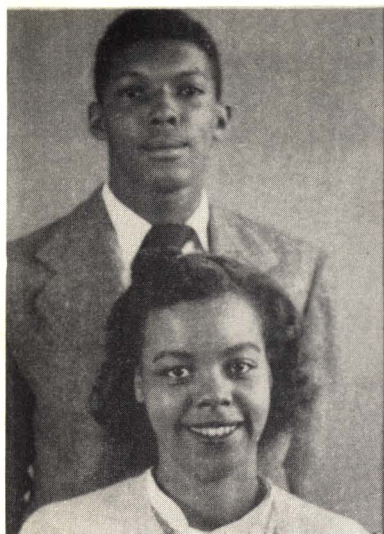

And finally we submit our Record to the Annals of the rich heritage of our Dear Alma Mater as another of her lofty achievements and dedicate our aims as we depart, to the aspiration of the full significance of her challenge:

"Go on thy way a goal to reach

And light the lamp of truth."

Last Will and Testament

On this glorious day of our lives, we the Seniors of 1950, being of sound mind and body, make, publish, and declare this to be our last will and testament and find it suitable to bequeath the following:

To the faculty, we bequeath our sincere appreciation and gratitude, for all they've done for us.

To the underclassmen, we leave our cleverness, ability, personal property, hard knocks, and our sincere wishes for their success.

To the following, we leave these personal wills, in hopes that they'll find them useful.

To Lolita McCoy, Nancy Taylor leaves her dignity.

James Foster wills his ability to sing to Charles Honesty.

Bessie Thornton's quietness is left to Hattye Essex.

To Gene Hudson, Roosevelt Foster leaves his slenderness.

Eva Neverdon's Nylon hose are left to Grace Harris.

Elsie Robinson wills her chemistry knowledge to Stanley Washington.

Frank Brook's leaves his ability to make B's in Mrs. Clifford's English class to Ryland Brown.

To Warren Strothers Jr., Eugene Skinner wills his number twenty-three jersey hoping he'll grow to it.

Lillian Greene's jolly disposition is left to Ethel Garnet.

Eva Colvin wishes to leave her legs to Burnadine Hawkins, hoping she'll find use for them.

Joseph Corum wills his shortness to Charles Mercer.

To Ann Johnson, Loretta Goins leaves her height.

Henry Dangerfield's ability to get to class on time is left to Roosevelt Jackson.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT (Cont'd)

Velia Cook's refined ways are left to Lily Ford.

To Adell Robinson, Virginia Harris leaves her ever ready smile.

Floyd Hunter wills his reliability to Leonard Hunter.

To Barbara Strothers, Doris Denney leaves her quiet tone of voice.

We leave Phillip Bushs' bashfulness to John Alexander.

To Agnes Washington, Earlene Pumphrey leaves her melodious voice. She hopes that she'll find it useful in the future.

Hilda Phillip's ability to get shorthand is left to Jewel Mundy and Nettie Ella Deskins.

To Wendell Bennett, we bequeath Fred Pole's patrol badge.

Jessie Champ, leaves her technique to get along with the bus driver to Benny Poles.

Mary Sheppard wills Ann Tankins her ability to style hair.

Ann Turner wills Edith Robinson and Maxine Thorne her ability to wear skirts and sweaters.

To Elmer Tyler, Helen Yates wills her books, hoping that he'll use them wisely.

Willie Churchill leaves her technique to jive Henry Bailey to Alice Murray.

To Fred Bell, we leave James Yates ability to get a laugh where ever he goes.

Mae Porter's ability to mind her own business is left to Nancy Thompson.

To Frances William's and Agnes Washington, we leave Mildred Robinson's size.

Catherine Harris wills Deloris Bailey her slimness.

LAST WILL AND TESTAMENT (Cont'd)

To Frances Williams and Agnes Washington we leave Mildred Robinson's size.

Catherine Harris wills Deloris Bailey her slimness.

To Shirley Morton we leave Alice Turner's technique for making friends.

We bequeath Beatrice Brown's sophistication to Joyce Carter, Deloris Bailey, and Evelyn Harris.

Audrey Abernathy wills her method of holding friends to Geraldine Sutton.

To Thresa Ball and Vivian Sulton, Clara Taylor bequeath her ways and actions.

To Mattie Baltimore, Lucille Lewis wills her technique to charm James Foster.

Last, but not least, to the future Seniors, we bequeath the front seats in the Assembly Hall.

PROPHECY

It is the year of 1965 - fifteen years have passed since the Class of 1950 left its footprints and memories embedded in the sands of Manassas Regional High School to go into broader fields of endeavor.

This date - June 5th - was set as the time for us, the Class of 1950, to gather again at our Alma Mater for a grand reunion.

It was both a surprise and delightful anticipation for me, Willie Churchill, to receive a letter from the steering committee that I had been selected to be the Mistress of Cermonies for this resplendent occasion. As head Directress of physical education of the Baine High School, New York City, I had to make quite a few arrangements so that I could arrive on the Campus ahead the other class members.

Upon arriving on the campus, I went directly to "Teachers-Cottage" to see Elsie Robinson who is in charge of cosmotology at M. R. S. We then went to "Howland Hall" which is the residents of Clarence Porter, James Yates, and James Grant, who teach masonry, carpentry, and electricity respectively.

These former classmates of mine, then proceeded to take me on a tour around the campus.

During the ensuing years after my graduation, many new and beautiful changes have been made. The old dormitories have been replaced by modern brick buildings, having everything to add to the comfort and enjoyment of the boarding students. The new auditorium seats one thousand people and is the last word in wonderful architecture. The class-rooms are much larger and the new equipment in them makes the students more comfortable. Gymnasiums have been built with all kinds of equipment that I couldn't start to name. A swimming pool has been built, along with hardsurfaced tennis courts. The athletic field has been enlarged and a new grandstand seating two thousand people has been built.

Now while sitting here in the spacious beautifully decorated cafeteria waiting for the others to arrive, I will assemble some notes that I gathered about them which I will relate as they come in.

Well members of the class are beginning to arrive. The first to come in are Eugene Skinner and his wife, the former Helen Ford, Coach Skinner, who is the head of the physical education department at Manassas, is the main reason why the teams of the school have taken, and held top place for so many years in the realms of athletics.

Uncle Sam has had in his employe, Captain Roosevelt Foster, of the Air Force, and Lieutenant Commander Ernest Coles, of the Navy. Oh, do they look good in those uniforms.

PROPHECY (Cont'd)

Dr. Eva Colvin, Alice Taylor, R. N., and Mae Porter, R. N. have just come through the door. I understand that Eva is one of the best doctors at the Freedman's Hospital in Washington, D. C. and that Mae and Alice are head nurses at the same hospital.

Clara Taylor and Nancy Taylor have just made their spectacular entrance. To see them it small wonder that all the big-wigs of the fashion world are clamoring for tickets for their new fashion's revue, entitled "Taylor and Taylor Revue the Fashions". With Clara designing the clothes and Nancy styling the hair, its bound to be great.

Catherine Harris has just taken her seat beside Clara and Nancy. Her latest picture is another box - office hit. I see Ann Turner, who arrived earlier, is interviewing them for her gossip column in the "Warrenton Gazette!"

Frederick Poles has just arrived. He teaches agriculture here at Manassas and has developed the school farm to a large profitable enterprise. Phillip Bush, Frank Brooks, and Joseph Corum seated themselves with Fred. "The Brooks, Bush, and Corum Construction Company" is leading all other competitors in the area.

While wondering about Loretta, James Foster and ensemble made a grand entrance. Big Foster is head man in the musicians union and has two classmates working with him; Lucille Lewis as his private secretary and Doris Denny as head treasurer. I understand that James has become another Randolph in his field.

Earline Pumphrey and Loretta Goins have just arrived. They are working in the same New York night club. Earline is doing the vocals while "Etta" is considered one of the most sensational comedienne of the year. I heard that she was going to have a publicity picture made (with trick photography) of her eating off the top of the Washington monument. With her height why use trick photography?

Speaking of Doris reminds me of Mildred Robinson. Oh, here she comes now. Mildred flew directly from India where she has been traveling lately. She has always wanted to travel in foreign lands so her job as ace foreign correspondent for the New York Times just suits her.

Oh there are Hilda Phillips and Ysadora Butler. They are both secretaries to important businessmen in Washington.

I see that there are a lot of cosmetologists in our midsts. These are Jessie Champ, Alice Turner, Velia Cook, Audrey Abernathy, and Eleanor Baltimore.

Helen Yates, Eva Neverdon, and Beatrice Brown have good jobs in various high schools in nearby cities, teaching Home Economics. Lillian Greene is the head of the Home Economics Department at Virginia State College. The latter two careers seem to have attracted a lot of the '50 classmen.

PROPHECY (Con'd)

Well, well, look who's here! Rodman Webster who has, surprisingly enough, a very good horse ~~trainer~~ and now owns a large horse farm. It just goes to show you that there is an occupation for everyone.

Leon Thorne just tried to sneak in without his old buddies seeing him. Oh too bad, he's been spotted. Oh well, they won't ever grow up. Leon is a chauffer, a good one (at that) I understand, and he's doing something that he enjoys.

Virginia Harris and Mary Sheppard have just taken their seats. Mary has an exclusive dress shop in Washington, patronized by many wealthy people. Virginia is the picture of contentment and happiness. Being a housewife certainly agrees with her.

Henry Dangerfield has started a Lonely Hearts Club. He wants other lonely people to have a chance to find the same kind of happiness that he has finally found. Bessie Thornton seems to be his main problem.

Sidney Cannon is the head of the Bureau of Vital Statistics. He lost his court case a few weeks ago but he still thinks he was right.

Shirley Robinson is teaching the students at Hampton how to modulate the tone of their voices.

Well, Betty Bailey has finally arrived so I guess the program will soon begin. Betty has consented to lead us in devotions; she has been in Africa working with her people, trying to guide them to the path of righteousness.

Henry Bailey who is principal of the High School in Way Cross Georgia, has telegraphed that he'll be late.

The President has signaled that it is time for the meeting to be called to order. It is interesting and encouraging to note that each member has gone his separate and chosen way, climbing his different ladders and many have reached the top of their successful climbs.

Willie L. Churchill

MEMORIAL

The Class of 1950 pause in hush silence to pay tribute of respect to a member of our class Elsie Inez Collins who departed this life January 21, 1947 during the early days of our Matriculation in High School. We dedicate this page in our annual as a Memorial to her and as an expression of our sincere and deepest sympathy to all those who loved and cherished her. We submit our judgements to the wisdom of the Divine Plan.

The Lord is my Shepherd;
I shall not want.
He maketh me lie down in the green pastures;
He leadeth me beside the
still waters.
He restoreth my soul:
He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
Surely Goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:
and I shall dwell in the house of the Lord Forever.
